

Is the Cash Discount Program Right for Your Business?

OnCore Payment Technologies in partnership with DishOut is now offering a cash discount program for merchants.

A cash discount program simply passes the cost of credit card acceptance back to customers who choose to pay with a credit or debit card. For those who decide to pay by cash, there is a reduced cost. The cash discount program seamlessly allows the business owner to recoup credit card processing fees they have historically absorbed—providing immediate additional cash flow to the business.

How does a Cash Discount Program work?

- Merchants must post notice to customers that a customer service charge (CUST SVC) will be assessed on all purchases.
- Merchants must also post notice that there will be a discount to cash transactions.
- The CUST SVC and Cash Discount percentages must be materially different amounts. e.g. In the receipt images (shown in the example) the CUST SVC fee is 3.95% and the Cash Discount is 3.45%.
- Technology is integrated into devices to provide seamless transactions.
- Merchant processing rate is set to off set Customer Service fees.
